

Importing Personal Property Into Czech Republic

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Customs Regulations:

Used household goods and personal effects are duty free provided goods have been owned and used by the customer for a minimum of six months and customer has lived abroad for at least one year. The goods must be imported within one year of issuance of the Czech visa. Items can not be sold in the Czech Republic at any time during customer's stay. Customer's employer must have a license to do business in the Czech Republic for the household goods to be permitted entry. Customer must be accredited and registered with local authorities in the Czech Republic or be employed by foreign embassy.

Note: Customers without a housing contract will not be able to clear their shipment. If one has not secured their residence permit at the time of Customs clearance have a grace period of up to six (6) months to present the permit to Customs.

NOTE: As of 19 August 2010 an EORI (Economic Operators Registration and Identification) number is required for all imports and exports to clear Customs in the European Union.

The requirement was introduced by the European Commission in July 2009 to enhance security. The EORI number must be used in all electronic communications with Customs Offices and other government agencies and departments. This number is valid in all EU member states and replaces ALL Customs identification numbers including the TIN (Traders Identification Number). All business operators and private individuals not established in the EU must obtain the EORI number from the authorities in the respective EU member state wherein the client intends to operate or reside. Please consult with your Destination Agent for further details and assistance.

NOTES:

Additional Entry Requirements: All foreigners seeking entry in the Czech Republic must carry proof of a medical insurance policy contracted for payment of all costs for hospitalization and medical treatment in the Czech Republic.

Special Circumstances: An International Driving Permit \(IDP\) must accompany a U.S. driver's license; failure to have the IDP with a valid license may result in denial of an insurance claim after an accident. Persons driving into the Czech Republic should be aware that a road usage tax sticker is required to drive legally on major highways. Signs stating this requirement are posted near the border, but they are easy to miss. The stickers are available at gasoline stations. The fine for failing to display a valid sticker is assessed on the spot.

Czech customs authorities enforce strict regulations concerning temporary importation into or export from the Czech Republic of items such as firearms, antiquities, medications, business equipment, etc. It is advisable to contact the Embassy of the Czech Republic in Washington, D.C. or the Consulates General of the Czech Republic in New York or Los Angeles for specific information regarding customs requirements.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: The Czech Republic adopted measures in 2005 requiring ISPM15 for wood packaging material (WPM).
