NOTES:

Entry & Exit Requirements: A letter of invitation approved by the government of Turkmenistan is required before one can apply for a visa. These letters must come from an individual or organization in Turkmenistan and submitted to the State Migration Service along with a copy of the information page of the visitor's passport. Passports must have at least 6 months of validity when applying for the letter of invitation. Upon arrival to Turkmenistan you will be issued an immigration card. Keep this card with you at all times during the stay. You must also register with the State Migration Service based on the city of the sponsoring organization: Ashgabat, Dashoguz, Mary, Turkmenabat or Turkmenbashi. Inform the SMS in advance if you plan to travel outside the city in which you are registered. Failure to do so may result in fines and deportation. Return to the SMS to register your departure from the country one day in advance. Both registration and de-registration must be done at the same SMS office. Failure to do will result in a fine, arrest and or deportation. If deported one cannot return for a period of 5 years.

Upon conclusion of stay return the card to authorities at airport of departure.

Safety & Security: many areas throughout the country as “restricted zones,” particularly the border areas next to Iran, Uzbekistan, and Afghanistan. Those wishing to enter restricted zones must apply for a permit from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Uniformed and plainclothes officials frequently ask to see passports, visas, migration cards, and SMS registrations. Ask to see identification if you are not certain that the person requesting the information is an official. Documentation checks, and residence and vehicle searches, are common. Security personnel maintain checkpoints on major roads US citizens are encouraged to enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, to stay current with the latest safety and security announcements dispersed by the Embassy in your area. Your enrollment can also help the Department of State reach your family and friends in case of emergency.

Crime: U.S. citizens, present an attractive target for criminals. Do not walk about after dark particularly if you are female. Pick pocketing is common. Violent crime is on the rise particularly against foreigners.

Currency: U.S. dollars are widely accepted and are required as payment for certain goods and services. Travelers may wish to bring sufficient U.S. currency to exchange into manat to cover expenses not payable in U.S. dollars. Old U.S. dollar bills (issued before 1990) and/or those in poor condition (with tears, writing or stamps) are not acceptable forms of currency in Turkmenistan.

Health: Medical care is limited and below Western standards. Medical evacuation insurance is highly recommended. Resident U.S. citizens travel to Western Europe or North America for treatment of any serious medical condition, and for many routine procedures. One should bring enough prescription medications and supplies and appropriate documentation for Customs Authority.

Those with disabilities or mobility issues will encounter accessibility issues.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: As of this posting Turkmenistan does not impose ISPM15 regulations for wood packaging material (WPM).
