Visitors should avoid trekking or other activities near the Belize-Guatemala border to ensure that they do not inadvertently cross the border into Guatemala.

Crime: The incidence of crime, including violent crimes such as armed robbery, shooting, stabbing, murder, and rape, remains high. Specific groups such as the elderly, women, or gays are not singled out for victimization; however neither are they immune from being targeted for robbery or assault. Homosexuality is not widely accepted in Belize culture and homosexual behavior may be subject to prosecution as an “Unnatural crime” under Section 53 of the Belize Criminal Code.

Although Americans are not specifically targeted because of their nationality, in recent years the Embassy has noted an increase in crimes against tourists at resorts and on the roads and river ways or between popular tourist destinations and archeological sites. Although there are armed guards stationed at many of the archeological sites, armed criminals have been known to prey on persons walking alone or in small groups from one site to another. While many theft victims are unharmed and only robbed of personal belongings and cash, victims who resist assailants have suffered injury.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: At this time Belize does not require the ISPM 15 requirement Qualified Retired Person (QRP): Please inquire with your destination Agent or Belize Tourist Board for current information and requirements for retiring in Belize
