

Importing Personal Property Into Portugal & The Azores

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Customs Regulations:

Customer must be present in Portugal prior to arrival of the shipment for Customs inspection. Shipment must arrive within 90 days of the customer and within 120 days of issue of the “Certificado de Bagagem”. All shipments are subject to inspection. Only ONE shipment is allowed without a special permit. When there is more than one shipment, detailed inventory must be submitted with the first shipment. If the additional shipment originates from a different location, separate inventory must be submitted for each. All shipments must be cleared through the same Customs office. Household goods must correspond in quantity to the social standing of the customer.

Used household goods and personal effects over six months old are duty free. Household goods imported duty free can NOT be exported for at least one year.

NOTE: As of 19 August 2010 an EORI (Economic Operators Registration and Identification) number is required for all imports and exports to clear Customs in the European Union.

The requirement was introduced by the European Commission in July 2009 to enhance security. The EORI number must be used in all electronic communications with Customs Offices and other government agencies and departments. This number is valid in all EU member states and replaces ALL Customs identification numbers including the TIN (Traders Identification Number). All business operators and private individuals not established in the EU must obtain the EORI number from the authorities in the respective EU member state wherein the client intends to operate or reside. Please consult with your Destination Agent for further details and assistance.

At Faro airport (FAO) pets cannot be cleared on Saturdays, Sundays and on official holidays.

Cats and dogs entering Madeira islands on direct flights from non-E.U. countries, are subject to obtaining prior authorisation from "Direccao Regional de Pecuaria de Madeira". Written authorisation to be requested at least 24 hours prior to arrival via fax +351-291-233156, stating name of the owner of the animal together with address, arrival flight number and date and type of animal. All pets must be accompanied by veterinarian good health certificates, issued at point of origin.

Work Permits: Obtaining a Work Permit requires a Passport plus 2 additional passport photos, Proof of Health Insurance, criminal back ground check and Notarized Letter from Employer stating expected length of employment. The length of employment determines the type of Residence Card. Work Permits are generally issued for 6 months, renewable at six-month intervals. If the contract period will exceed 1 year, the renewed Residence Card will be valid for 5 years. If the contract is extended past the initial 6 months but will be under a year, the employee is issued a Temporary Residence Card and their Work Permit will be extended only to the duration of the Employee Contract. Work Permits must be approved by the Portuguese Ministry of Labour.

NOTE: Professionals such as doctors, dentists, lawyers etc must validate their credentials with an authorized board of Portuguese professionals prior to setting up a practice.

Automobile Plates: The tax and duty rates for importing autos tends to be very high and assessed value by Portuguese standards may not be on par with US standards. Also one is required to obtain an auto plate from either your Customs Broker or with the A.C.P. The cost of the Portuguese license plate can cost up to 40% of the value of the car.
