

Importing Personal Property Into Sweden

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AND REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Customs Regulations:

Client must be in Sweden and have a registered domicile to be allowed duty exemption. Client must be in Sweden at time of Customs Clearance but is not required to be present during the process. A physical exam is not generally required but Customs Authority may require one. Used household goods and personal effects are duty free provided goods have been owned and used by the customer for at least six months and client has lived abroad for at least one year. Used goods and personal effects must not be intended for commercial use or for the use of others. In the event the household goods shipment arrives before the client, the goods can be bonded at the Destination Agent's warehouse or a Swedish Freeport. Goods must arrive within 1 year of client's arrival (foreigners).

Returning Nationals; goods must arrive in conjunction with their return to Sweden.

Any additional costs will be charged to the customer. Terms "Misc" or "PBO" (packed by owner) are unacceptable. Improperly completed Inventory could lead to an inspection by Customs Authority and subsequent charges will be incurred.

NOTE: All business operators and private individuals not established in the EU must obtain the EORI number (Economic Operators Registration and Identification) from the authorities in the respective EU member state wherein the client intends to operate or reside. Please consult with your Destination Agent for further details and assistance.

NOTES:

Entry & Exit Requirements: All U.S. citizens should always ensure that passports and important personal papers are in order in the event it becomes necessary to leave the country quickly for any reason. Safety & Security: US citizens are encouraged to enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program, to stay current with the latest safety and security announcements dispersed by the Embassy in your area. Your enrollment can also help the Department of State reach your family and friends in case of emergency.

Crime: Most crime is personal property theft from vehicles or residential burglary. Pick pocketing and purse snatching is more prevalent; occurring in airports, train stations or buses and main tourist attractions.

Sweden has a limited compensation program for victims of violent crime for residents.

Criminal Penalties: Possession, using or selling illegal drugs carries a severe penalties, long jail sentences and heavy fines. Sweden has no bail system, so those arrested may be held in custody until the trial is complete.

Health: Individuals with disabilities may find accessibilities and accommodations very different from US. The Swedish government continues to implement improvements to public transportation and public buildings. The medical system is state-run. Be prepared to present your passport. Foreign residents requiring medications in Class IV or V may import a 3 month supply with a prescriptions and physician letter. Refer to the Medical Products Agency in Sweden to determine classification and requirements.

Fumigation of Wood Packing Materials: Sweden has implemented requirements regarding ISPM15 for wood packaging material (WPM).
